From Our Diocesan Directors...

"The Church is first and foremost, a family, and I want those who feel on outside or who don't have a sense of belonging, to feel welcomed home. Our office hosts many events that are run by faithful volunteers and support staff. I hope to encourage local leaders to feel empowered to dream about what God wants them to build in the Church, and to go and do it."

-Rachael Tvrdy, Director of Family Life & Discipleship

"The call of Christ to make disciples of all nations is particularly poignant when our mission comes to us, as is the case with Hispanic immigrants. It's my passion to make available to them the resources of our diocese, for our mutual benefit and growth in holiness."

-Ricardo Izquierdo, Director of Hispanic Ministry,
