In July of 1970, Father Keefe was also assigned to be Moderator of the Pre-Cana Program. His final appointment as assistant pastor was to Blessed Sacrament, Lincoln (1973-1977). From June until September of 1977, he was pastor of Immaculate Conception, Rulo, and St. Mary’s, Arago. In September of 1977, the opportunity arose for him to serve the Lincoln Diocesan mission in Barquisimeto, Venezuela, South America, where he remained until 1984.

Upon Father Keefe’s return to the diocese, he was pastor of St. John’s, Prague, Sts. Cyril and Methodius, Plasi, and teacher of Religion at Bishop Neumann High School, Wahoo (1984-1990). Rev. Joseph Mruczkowski

Father Joseph Mruczkowski, son of John and Bernice (Cieslinski) Mruczkowski, was born in Erie, Pennsylvania on July 19, 1919. He had three brothers and a sister. One of his brothers, Father Leonard, was also called to the priesthood. Father Joseph attended Saint Charles College, Catonsville, Maryland, and St. Mary Seminary, Baltimore, Maryland.

The Most Rev. John K. Mussio, first Bishop of the Diocese of Stuebenville, ordained Father Mruczkowski to the priesthood for the Diocese of Stuebenville on December 16, 1945. From 1945 to 1953, Father Mruczkowski served parishes in Martins Ferry and Barton, Ohio. He was also director of the Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) and Catholic Women’s Club (CWC). In 1953, Father Mruczkowski transferred to the Diocese of Lincoln. He was assigned to the following parishes: St. Mary, Alexandria and St. Joseph, Gilead (1953-1956); St. Ann, Campbell (1956-1963); Sacred Heart, Roseland and its missions (1963-1968); St. Wenceslaus, Wahoo (1968-1976); St. John the Apostle, Lincoln (1976-1990) and St. Patrick, Manley and its mission St. Mary, Elmwood (1990-1995). Father Mruczkowski also served as a member of the Diocesan Building Commission and a Chaplain for the Knights of Columbus.

Father Mruczkowski retired from active ministry in 1995. Father Michael Christensen, who spoke at Father Mruczkowski’s funeral Mass, recalled that one of the highlights of Father Mruczkowski’s priestly life was concelebrating Mass with Blessed John Paul II in the private papal chapel in Rome in 1996. He loved the gift of his priestly vocation and proved to be a true friend of his fellow priests. Father Mruczkowski was called from this earthly dwelling to his eternal home on October 11, 2012, the opening day of the Year of Faith. Bishop Fabian Bruskewitz celebrated the funeral Mass on October 18. Father Mruczkowski was buried in Erie, Pennsylvania. 306a
