DECREE
Change in the Manner of Promulgation for Particular Law in the Diocese of Lincoln

Whereas a law is established when it is promulgated (c. 7) and particular laws are promulgated in the manner determined by the legislator (c. 8 §2);

Whereas the 1996 Lincoln Diocese Synod established that “any official notice published in the Southern Nebraska Register shall be considered duly promulgated” (Art. 7.1.3);

Whereas it is my belief that publication on the Diocese of Lincoln Website better facilitates the timely and orderly promulgation of changes to the particular law of the Diocese of Lincoln;

I, the Most Reverend James D. Conley, by the Grace of God and the favor of the Apostolic See bishop of the Diocese of Lincoln, hereby establish that:

1. Article 7.1.3. of the 1996 Lincoln Diocese Synod is abrogated
2. New particular laws and any and all changes to existing particular laws shall be considered duly promulgated with their publication on the official Diocese of Lincoln website.

All things to the contrary notwithstanding.

Given at the Chancery in Lincoln, Nebraska, February 2nd, 2022.

The Most Reverend James D. Conley, D.D., S.T.L.
Bishop of Lincoln

Reverend Daniel J. Rayer, J.C.L.
